(b) the commissioner shall not delegate his power under section 91 to make appointment to officers carrying a salary or more than fifty rupees per mensem ;

(c) the commissioner shall not delegate to the holder of any office his power under section 97 to fine reduce, suspend, remove or dismiss any employee, unless such employee was appointed by the holder of such office by virtue of a delegation of the Commissioner's powers of appointment ;

(d) the commissioner shall not delegate his power order section 184 or section 185 to acquire or dispose of any property or interest therein when the value of the property or any interest therein exceeds two hundred and fifty rupees ;

(c) the commissioner shall not delegate his power under section 191 to make on behalf of he corporation any contract involving an expenditure exceeding two thousand rupees ;

(f) when the commissioner delegates under this required to be performed subjecet to the approval of any other municipal authority, the commissioner shall send a copy of the order of delegation to such authority.

(2) The exercise or discharge by a corporation officer of any powers, duties or functions delegated to him under this section shall be subject to such restrictions, limitations and conditions, (if any), as may be laid down by the commissioner and shall be subject to his control and revision.

74. Delegation of commissioner's extraordinary powers.—The commissioner may on his own responsibility and by an order in writing authorize the health officer, the engineer, the revenue officer or any other officer who is the head of a department working under the commissioner, or any person in temporary charge of the duties of any of the officers aforesaid to exercise the extraordinary powers conferred on him by clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 71.

75. Custody of records.—The commissioner shall be responsible for the custody of all records of the corporation including all papers and documents connected with the proceedings of the corporation, the standing committees and other committees, and shall arrange for the performance of such duties relating to the proceedings of the said bodies as they respectively, impose.

76. Control over corporation establishment by the commissioner.—Subject to the provision of this Act the rules and the regulations, the commissioner shall specify the duties of the corporation establishment and exercise powers of supervision, and decide all questions relating to the conditions of service of persons borne on such establishment.

77. Powers of councillors.—(1) Any councillor may draw the attention of the proper authority to any neglect in the execution of corporation work, to any waste of corporation property, or to the wants of any locality, and may suggest any improvements which he considers desirable.

(2) Every councillor shall have the right to interpellate on matters connected with the corporation administration subject to regulations framed in this behalf.

CHAPTER VI.

PROCEDURE OF THE CORPORATION AND COMMITTEES

78. Proceedings of the corporation and standing committees.—(1) The first meeting of the corporation after the general elction shall be held as early as possible after the publication of the results of such election and shall be convened by the commissioner. It shall be presided over by the Divisional Commissioner of the revenue division having jurisdicton.

(2) The meetngs of the corporation, the standing committees and other committees shall be held in the office of the corporation and the business before them shall be disposed of in accordance with the procedure laid down in Schedule I.

(2) The corporation may require any of the officers to attend any meeting of the corporation at which any matter dealt with by such officer in the course of his duties is being discussed; when any officer is thus required to attend any such meeting he may be called upon to make a statement of facts or supply such information in his possession relating to any matter dealt with by him as the corporation may require.

79. Interpellations.—A councillor may, subject to the rules laid down in Schedule I ask questions on any matter relating to the administration of this Act or the municipal government of the corporation.

80. Obligation laid on remaining municipal authorities to carry out resolutions of the corporation.—The committees constituted under this Act and the commissioner shall be bound to give effect to very rsolution of the corporation unless such resolution is cancelled in whole or in part by the Government;